

Livin' in the Pocket

Words and Music by Stephen Smoke

*The chords for this song are very simple: D (4 beats), C (2 beats), G (2 beats)
This pattern repeats throughout the song. I include the chords in the first verse only, because the pattern is so simple.*

D C G D
I am not the man... in my songs
D C G D
Sometimes I try to be
D C G D
I paint my thoughts...light, dark, blues...and mystery
D C G D
They're a part of me

I let it go...I ease into the stream
I let it flow through me
All around...I see liquid poetry
And Baby, I feel free

Refrain:

(You know) I'm rockin' to the rhythm and the rhyme
(You know) I'm happy most of the time
Livin' in the pocket
Livin' in the pocket

When I look...when I look into your eyes
I read the book of time
We are a verse...in the "uni-verse"...of rhyme
Hear the carillon chime

Oh baby...we give each other love
Can't take that away
But if you change yourself...just to try to make love stay
It'll go anyway

Refrain

People say you lose...if you fall short of your aim
Baby, that ain't so
When you take a chance...You're not just watchin' the show
Win or lose you grow

And when the curtain falls...and the last page is turned Nothin' left to say
You'll be surprised to find... at the end of the day
There ain't no end of the day
