

PARADOX (LOOKING FOR A LIGHTHOUSE)

Words and Music by Stephen Smoke

D A7
You say everything's unique
D G A D
Every snowflake is a masterpiece
D A7
But when I ask about your life
D G A D
(you give me) that "same old/same old" speech

D A7
Today is the last day
D G A
The last day of your life
D A7
Make it the first day
D G A
Seen through eyes of clear sight

Refrain

Bm G D
So grab yourself a long board
A Bm
And surf into the sea
G D
Looking for a Lighthouse
A Bm G D A C G D
Through the fog of time and mystery

It took time to lose yourself
Takes time to be found
Temptation calls
Across familiar ground

From places where you used to hide
Places where you used to bleed
Offering the help you want
But not the help you need

Refrain

We lives our lives in shadows
We avoid the light
Ashamed to be wrong
Afraid to be right

Life seems random (yet)
Somehow perfect too
To reconcile this paradox
Brings God into view

Refrain